

2022 Black Maternal Health Month & Birth Justice Summit Powered by I Be Black Girl

I Be Black Girl is excited to host and convene the annual Nebraska Black Maternal Health Month! The two day conference will be filled with opportunities to learn and connect through live and on demand training sessions held both virtually and in person. We would love for you to consider sponsoring this historic event and all pertinent information is below.

Who is I Be Black Girl

I Be Black Girl (IBBG) is a reproductive justice organization that leads with boldness, innovation and inspiration, actively creating a radical change-making culture that centers Black women, femmes and girls. Inspired by the work of bell hooks, Alice Walker, Audre Lorde and other Black feminist and womanist, our organization provides transformational change at the intersections of gender and race.

I Be Black Girl serves as a collective for Black women, femmes and girls to actualize their full potential to authentically be, through autonomy, abundance and liberation.

Black Birth Equity Focus- The What & Why

I Be Black Girl works with various partners across Nebraska to address the inequities, trauma and violence within the maternal health sector. Our goal is to Expand Access to Quality & Culturally Relevant Maternal Health Services. To improve Black women's maternal health, we need a comprehensive approach that addresses our health across the lifespan, improves access to and the delivery of quality care, provides greater economic security, and advocacy at the policy and system level.
